

boggling. At 50 years old it would be a miracle, I know I couldn't do for as long as you did it, but at 75 is completely unexplainable.

Working along side you for those nights with Mike as our leader are some of my favorite moments in my life. The pride I have for what I can do, what I can accomplish, , and what Michael can do and what Chris has done, what we all can achieve, when it comes to mechanical challenges, I know ALL came from YOU.

But most importantly, I am proud of you and I am so proud to be your Son. I admire you untiring unflappable ability to change course and accomplish anything without a complaint or even a groan; just a "no problem" reply and your off on your task. Sometimes you don't have a lot of things that need to be done and so you might feel low but then you tap this seemingly unending resource or strength to do amazing things. I appreciate the patience and support that Claire gives you as well, but at least she gets the benefit of being with you more than anyone.

For all that you have given us, I say Thank you..

Love,

Sal's Son

Posted by salbiancojr at 10:36 AM No comments:

Home

Subscribe to: Posts \(Atom\)